III. This animal has been thoroughly examined by the Breeder and is found to be in good health at this date. All required inoculations (i.e., Parvo, DHPP) and other preventative care (i.e. wormings) for the animal required to date, have been attended to by the Breeder (see animal's Medical Record for exact measures). New Owner agrees to establish a booster vaccination program and heartworm preventative program with their veterinarian on their first visit. New Owner agrees to ensure that said animal is NOT GIVEN a LEPTOSPIROUS shot until said animal is one (1) year of age or older.

IV. The New Owner agrees that within a period of 48 hours (during normal business days), beginning 12:00 a.m. EST the day following the date of sale, to have said animal examined by a veterinarian of his choice in order to certify the health of said animal. The examination is at the New Owner's expense. New Owner agrees to provide a copy of the veterinarian certification (receipt) to the Rescuer within three (3) days of said examination.

V. If after this examination, within the 48 hour period specified previously. If said animal is not found to be in good health by the New Owner's veterinarian the New Owner must immediately notify the Rescuer. Should said animal be determined to be in ill health, the cause of which is clearly attributable to the Rescuer, the New Owner, upon presentation of written diagnosis from said veterinarian, may elect to return said animal to the Rescuer along with all accompanying information papers for refund of purchase price. New Owner agrees to provide transportation of said animal to return to Rescuer.

VI. New Owner shall assume full responsibility for the health, anatomical make-up, appearance and temperament of said animal upon date of purchase. All kenneling and maintenance expenses will be borne by the New Owner. This includes: boarding fees, food, veterinary fees, medication, and transportation fees.

VII. The Rescue Puppy/Dog described herein and sold herewith is represented by the Rescuer as PET quality therefore, no guarantees are offered or expressed or implied after said 48 hour period. The Rescuer does guarantee that all medical precautions have been taken to avoid health problems.

VIII. Rescuer is willing to give advice to the New Owner in any matter concerning the well-being of said animal.

IX. New Owner agrees to take proper safeguards for the care and safety of the Rescue Puppy/Dog described herein including but not limited to necessary food, veterinarian care, and general care to maintain good and proper health, proper shelter, and adequate exercise (Rescuer recommends that said animal should be provided the opportunity to relieve himself every four hours, as a minimum). New Owner agrees to read all written materials supplied with said animal and to become knowledgeable on raising said animal.

X. New Owner may never train or use the Rescue Puppy/Dog described herein for fighting or attack purposes.

XI. New Owner agrees that if at any time they are unable to keep said animal due to a change in their circumstances and are forced to seek another “new” owner for said animal or due to any other conceivable reason, then at that time the New Owner agrees to notify the Breeder in writing by registered mail. Rescuer has first option of receiving said animal as its next “new” owner before anyone else; and that will be the Breeder's choice. After a three month period no refund is applicable. Upon confirmation that said animal is to be returned to the Rescuer, for whatever reason, the New Owner agrees to make all transportation arrangements at their own expense. New Owner agrees to deliver said animal directly to the Rescuer. New Owner agrees not to turn said animal over to any other party.
